ARTIST TALK - Roxane Mayeur

Wednesday, September 6 - Monthly Meeting

ARTIST BIO

Roxane Mayeur is a visual artist working in wax-based media. She explores symbolic imagery and abstract patterns found in nature and the urban environment. The wax surfaces can be highly textured and opaque or translucent and luminous. Vibrant colors and muted earth tones are created by embedding media such as pigments, marble dust, graphite, and collage into the wax. She creates her work using both cold wax techniques and the encaustic process of applying layers of molten beeswax and resin. Each piece employs an element of chance and is unique and visually dynamic.

Roxane resides and has her studio in the Bay View neighborhood of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Odd Month Challenge of Opportunity
September 2023 | Stories

The theme for September's Odd Month Challenge of Opportunity is STORIES. Can you tell a story with your art? Tall buildings have stories of architecture. Newspaper stories! Soap operas! Lies and gossip! Real or imagined, tell a story in your own unique and creative way. So many possibilities, get busy! Make Art from your ideas and submit up to 5 of them to the ODD Month Album on our Facebook Members Only page from September 1 through September 30.

SHOW STATEMENT

The theme of this show is Go Figure!

Is it figurative?

Is it about perplexity, confusion, surprise, or puzzlement?

Is it figuratively speaking; or metaphorical?

How does it all add up?

You decide and surprise us so that we can Go Figure.

We invite you to create and share your art for the community to experience.
