ODD MONTH Challenge of Opportunity COWABUNGA! March 2024

THERE ARE 3 DAYS LEFT ADD IMAGES TO THE FACEBOOK ALBUM
THE DEADLINE IS MARCH 31 AT 11:59 PM

The phrase has been generally credited to Edward Kean, writer of the Howdy Doody Show in the 40's and 50's. It was adopted by surfers in the 50's and 60's as a declaration of enthusiasm. In 1965, Snoopy in Peanuts used the word whilst surfing. It became a catchphrase for Cookie Monster on Sesame Street. Michaelangelo of Teenage Mutant Turtles, Bart Simpson, and the movie Lilo & Stitch have used the word.

What has you shouting COWABUNGA!? You will have the opportunity to share up to five (5) images of your COWABUNGA moments.

ARTIST TALK

Mike De Sisti

Wednesday, April 3

Mike De Sisti has been a full-time photojournalist for 25 years. He's spent the last 15 years at the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel.

After abstract painting a bit some 20 years ago, Mike took up the craft again in the Spring of 2023. While his medium of choice for the last few decades has been a camera, he's now added paint to the mix. Painting is his escape from daily deadlines, technology issues, screens, and all that interrupts that flow of creativity. Canvases don't lock up! You don't have to stop, reboot, or update a palette knife. Just dip a brush in some paint and let it do its thing. He prefers abstract painting as he feels the paint is in charge. He's just the middleman, setting it free from its tube to the canvas, where the paint does what it wants anyway — so why fight it?

Mike believes that if he and the paint have this mutual understanding, they'll work well together. And hopefully the result is some pretty kick-ass art!

Denise Hansen

Denise raised her hand at the Saturday Social at Inspiration Studios and volunteered to be the Vice-Chair of the SE Chapter.

We will officially nominate her at the April Meeting and then vote to accept her nomination as Vice-Chair.
