David Claerbout, The Close

- The Close, a new video the Belgium-based artist David Claerbout completed in 2022, will be presented from November 18, 2022 – January 8, 2023. It is a journey of the past and future of the camera, bringing together amateur footage made in about 1920 and a digital 3D rendering of that footage. “We could say that [The Close] is a journey between the past, the present, and the future of the filmic image.”—David Claerbout
- Playing Favorites on the Mezzanine features drawings and paintings by self-taught artists such as Minnie Evans, Martín Ramírez, Alfred Wallis, and Adolf Wölfli
- Visit the second-floor Bradley Family Gallery to see The Ashcan School and The Eight: “Creating a National Art.” The exhibit re-examines the artists and the social issues they depicted, drawing parallels to today.
- Ending on January 1, 2023, in the Herzfeld Center for Photography and Media Arts is On Repeat: Serial Photography.

The Museum Café on the Café Level, under Windhover Hall, is open. The menu features snacks, salads, and sandwiches. Indulge in art-inspired beverages by Discourse: Coffee Workshop. The Kohl’s Art Studio is open Friday–Sunday, 10 am–4 pm. Reserve your admission tickets and find information on parking, safety protocols, and more at mam.org/visit.

Mauree Childress, a member of the Wisconsin Visual Artists Southeast Chapter, is a docent at the Milwaukee Art Museum. She will be providing a monthly update on what is happening at the Milwaukee Art Museum.

WISCONSIN VISUAL ARTISTS PERSPECTIVES 2023

DEADLINE TO APPLY: JANUARY 7, 2023

A juried, statewide exhibition accomplishes something that a themed exhibition does not. It captures a snapshot of the times and gauges the temperature of a moment in our local history. What are Wisconsin artists saying in 2023? What kind of imagery, materials, and issues are at the forefront of our visual dialogue?

When we set out to organize an exhibition such as this, there is no way of knowing what kind of artwork will be submitted and chosen. What we do know is that it will be a group of artworks rich with diversity in both media and perspective.

It is our hope that your perspective will continue to be challenged, stretched, and massaged through Wisconsin's visual art.

JAMES WATROUS GALLERY - Opportunity

The Wisconsin Academy of Sciences, Arts & Letters announces a statewide Call for Artists to exhibit in the James Watrous Gallery, located in Madison's Overture Center for the Arts. Wisconsin artists working in all media are encouraged to apply. For the first time, the Academy is also welcoming exhibition proposals from guest curators.

Those selected by the jury will be invited to exhibit or curate within the next several years, with the earliest exhibition opening in late 2023. Most exhibitions will be in the form of paired side-by-side solo shows.

Jurors for this year's call will be Portia Cobb, Anwar Floyd-Pruitt, Yvette Pino, and Rae Senarighi.

Applications will be accepted beginning December 1st.
