one forty-four

In number theory, 144 is the twelfth Fibonacci number; it is the only Fibonacci number (other than 0, and 1) also to be a square. The Fibonacci sequence is a set of steadily increasing numbers where each number equals the sum of the preceding two numbers.

The golden ratio of 1:618 is derived from the Fibonacci sequence. Many things in nature have dimensional properties that adhere to the golden ratio of 1:618. The golden ratio also appears in the arts, and rectangles whose dimensions are based on the golden ratio,
